Courtesy of the Four Seasons Hotel Hampshire When you hit the road, it's hard to leave your four-legged friends behind. Lots of luxury hotels agree. In fact, The Daily Mail rounded up a list of resorts where pets are on staff, and it's pretty extensive. From hosting yappy hours to organizing pet fashion shows, their responsibilities are nothing short of impressive. Take a look at some of the most wow-worthy pets in the hospitality industry below. The Canine Ambassador at the Fairmont Copley Plaza, Carly Copley, has her own business cards and e-mail address, according to Boston Magazine. Carly was rescued from the Animal Rescue League of Boston and lives with a hotel doorman. The Chesterfield Palm Beach Madame Ambassador Lady Dustine comes from a long line of show dogs,Ã Âbut this canine's chosen a career in hospitality instead. The pup welcomes furry friends to atÃ ÂThe ChesterfieldÃ Âwith a special toy basket, and hosts tea, brunch, and yappy hour. Le Bristol Paris Now these are some purrfectlyÃ Âpampered cats. Burmese cats Fa-Raon and KlÃ©Âopatre live in an apartment within theÃ ÂLe Bristol Paris Hotel that's decorated by street artist Renk. Perhaps even more impressive? Fashion house Goyard designed their collars.Ã Â The Ritz-Carlton, Bachelor Gulch At the Ritz-Carlton, Bachelor Gulch in Beaver Creek, Colorado, Bachelor, a 32-pound Saint Bernard, frolicks by the ski lift and accompanies the resort's resident naturalist on nature hikes.Ã Â The Algonquin Hotel Since the 1920s, New York'sÃ ÂAlgonquin Hotel has hosted a cat, who is cared for by the hotel's Chief Cat Officer and cooked a special meal on holidays. Every year, the hotel celebrates the cat's birthday with a cat fashion show to benefit the Alliance for NYC's Animals.Ã Â Four Seasons Hotel Hampshire At the dog-friendly Four Seasons Hotel Hampshire, Oliver Beckington, a Black greets other pets and shows them his favorite places on the grounds of the resort - which was once a historic Georgian manor house. You think oliver's cute? his curriculum boasts modeling concerts at tatler, vanity fair and harper's bazaar. rosewood londra when pearl, the pooch resident at the rosewood london, does not greet other canine guests, she snacks on dog popcorn and cookies at the hotel delicatessen. stayed also at the five star sister hotel in Tuscany, Italy, and hopes to visit their new Paris resort next year. the oyster box More than 10 years ago, a cat wandered on the property of the oyster box in KwaZulu-Natal, south africa, and was fed shrimp and seafood. unexpectedly, he never left. now called skabenga – meaning hooligan or vagabond to zulu – the cat greets special guests (such as the tree-lined prince and the princess charlene of monk) and takes every day inspection walks around the hotel gardens. How long and romantic walks on the beach? also jasper, the staff brindle whippet at the scarlet hotel of cornovaglia, inghilterra – so you can book time to take a walk with him. keemala hotel in this charming resort in phuket, in Thai, two water buffalo keep the meadows. Well, it's a way to keep landscapers at bay.
